

PLA MEDIA

For Immediate Release

Contact: Dawn DeJongh

Phone: 615-327-0100

E-mail: dawn@plamedia.com

Physician on a Mission, Dr. Kenny Davin Fine climbs the Radio Charts while Inspiring Goodness

Forging his path while finding inspiration in music, Dr. Fine surrounds himself with eclectic musical mainstays such as Buddy Miller and Jim Lauderdale, John Hiatt, Ricky Skaggs and the Time Jumpers, as “Bird in the Hand” moves straight up the music charts. “Bird in the Hand” is his second consecutive charting single, right behind “40 Days and 40 Nights,” which charted last year.

Not only is Dr. Fine surrounding himself with musical greats as he moves up the music charts, he is one of the leading gastroenterologists in Dallas, TX, and travels the country as a “Physician-Musician on a Mission.” Through his music and medical background he has created an educational and enlightening musical, medical conference that inspires audiences around the world. “I don’t care about being noticed. It’s more about creating a movement of Spiritual Warriors to create a force of Goodness,” states Dr. Fine.

Dr. Kenny Davin Fine is living proof of what it means to live better by implementing raw and organic eating. Dr. Davin Fine encompasses clean eating into his diet which leads to better living, relationships, more energy and helps to prevent illnesses and disease. Through simple how-to-tips for choosing the “right” foods, and dietary recommendations/recipes to help others achieve optimal nutrition, energy and mood stability, Dr. Davin Fine influences audiences all over the world to become raw food advocates. His groundbreaking research, led him to found the Intestinal Health Institute in Dallas, TX where he creates awareness of the health and nutritional needs of people throughout the world.

For more information on Kenny Davin Fine, visit www.kennydavinfine.com

###

To schedule an interview, contact Dawn DeJongh at PLA Media by phone at 615-327-0100 or by email at dawn@plamedia.com.